California Labor Code Section 2810.5 Notice to Employees

Employers must give employees written information about their job and pay.

Initial Compensation Disclosure Statement:

At the time of hire, your employer must give you a written statement disclosing the following:

- The employer's name, business name, physical and mailing address of the main office, email address and the employer's phone number
- Your rate(s) of pay and pay day
- Your pay basis (hourly, weekly, commission)
- The formula by which the rate of pay can be determined
- Any additional information required by law

Pay Statement:

Each pay day, your employer must provide you with information required by California Labor Code 226(a):

- Gross and net wages earned
- Deductions taken
- Total hours worked by the employee
- Number of piece-rate units earned (for piece-rate workers)
- Pay basis (hour, shift, day, week, commission)
- Inclusive date of the period for which the employee is paid
- Applicable hourly rates in effect during the pay period and corresponding number of hours worked at each hourly rate
- Name and address of the employer
- Name of the employee; and either the last four digits of the employees SSN or the employee ID number

California Labor Code Section 98.7 Your Rights Are Protected

You may be entitled to compensation for any violation of this law by your employer.

You Have a Right to File a Complaint:

You may file a complaint with the Malibu City Attorney or California State Labor Commissioner for alleged violations of the Minimum Wage Ordinance.

Complaints must be filed within three years after the occurrence of the alleged violation.

You Have a Right to Sue:

Any employee, entity, or other person acting on behalf of the public, and whose rights under this law have been violated, may bring a civil action in a court of law against any employer who violates the Minimum Wage Ordinance.

Malibu Municipal Code Section 5.36.080 Retaliation is Illegal

It is illegal for an employer to retaliate against you for exercising your rights.

You have the protected right to:

- File a complaint
- Inform any person of their potential rights
- Assert your rights under this law

These actions are prohibited if done to retaliate against you for exercising your rights:

- Fire you
- Reduce your pay
- Discriminate against you
- Threaten you or any of your immediate family members

Note: Your employer may take disciplinary actions against you if there is cause to do so; however, there is a presumption of retaliation if your employer is unable to show cause.
